

Activities Of Fern Avenue PTA Told At Board Meet

Fern Avenue P.T.A. executive board meeting was held Wednesday morning, Jan. 21, in the school.

A new magazine chairman, Mrs. Robert Shears, was appointed to replace Mrs. Spencer Greene, who has had to resign.

A new room mother chairman, in the person of Mrs. Cleon Richmond, also was appointed to replace Mrs. E. F. Welton, who is moving into her new home in Palos Verdes Hills.

Plans for the regular meeting to be held in the school auditorium Wednesday Jan. 28 were discussed.

Mrs. W. E. Bowen will be the featured speaker. As president of the Torrance Council, of the First District of P.T.A., her message will be of great interest to all members.

Music for the program will be furnished by Miss Pat Clere, talented daughter of one of the Fern Avenue teachers, Mrs. Ruby Clere.

TO-LO-HA Club Sews Layettes At Monday Meet

The sewing group of the To-Lo-Ha Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ruth Buth, where the ladies spent the day sewing on layettes. Priced reasonably, these garments, beautifully finished, may be purchased separately or in complete layettes, affording purchasers good value and permitting To-Lo-Ha members an opportunity to swell their club treasury.

The sewing group met last week at the home of Mrs. Ines Ambill on Gramercy avenue.

The monthly card parties, sponsored by the club, have been discontinued, according to Mrs. Ann Hight, president.

Torrance Women Report Meeting, Tell Activities

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary No. 130 of Carpenters' Union, Local No. 1140, was held Friday evening.

A report from the hospital committee members, who make regular visits to the group's adopted ward in Harbor General hospital disclosed their frequent visits to elderly women patients there. Outstanding among services rendered the patients is letter writing, they stated. Gifts of magazines and garden flowers provided by the visitors help cheer the women, the committee reported. The auxiliary workers are planning a special Valentine activity at the hospital.

At the next meeting, set for Friday Feb. 13 in Carpenters' hall, a Valentine party will honor charter members Mmes. Virginia Smith, Viola Woodman and Nellie Sidel. Members are asked to bring guests to this meeting. Entertainment will feature cards and games. Mrs. Gwen Limoges will direct the program and entertainment and Mrs. Camilla Morris and Mrs. Nina Eggers will serve on the refreshment committee.

School District Secretaries Are Party Guests

Mrs. Helen Selover was a charming hostess when she entertained Friday evening at her home, 18100 Bailey drive.

Her guests were secretaries of the Torrance School District, Mmes. Bobbe Turner, Martha Burkholder, Dorothy Hatfield, Irene Smith, Evelyn Coles and Miss Dorothy Shaklee. Also present was Mrs. W. T. Black, Mrs. Selover's house guest.

Games and music were the evening diversion. Dainty refreshments were served.
